The Wilshire Center - Koreatown Neighborhood Council Supports The New Arts Foundation

To the New Arts Foundation:

The Wilshire Center - Koreatown Neighborhood Council supports The New Arts Foundation and its upcoming fundraiser, which will take place in Koreatown on Saturday, July 13, 2019. New Arts is a 501(c)(3) organization that produces Outsider Art events to fundraise for local mental health initiatives. New Arts promotes untrained and underrepresented voices (Outsider Art) through its events, and its work contributes to raising their profile and increasing the diversity of LA's artistic community.

The fundraiser event has the full support of NAMI Urban Los Angeles, the local affiliate of the National Alliance on Mental Illness. New Arts has also committed to translating its event materials into Korean and Spanish to help make events inclusive and accessible to as many Wilshire Center-Koreatown stakeholders as possible.

Supporting the arts and battling mental health are both important initiatives to the Wilshire Center-Koreatown neighborhood, and we look forward to further involvement from New Arts in the Wilshire Center-Koreatown community, including future events in Koreatown and a New Arts Festival in Summer 2020.

Sincerely,

Steve Bae
